

Named Nurse for Learning Disability

Hello, my name is Lisa Smith

Learning Disability Project Manager

Hello, my name is Beth Wilson

We help people with learning disabilities receive good quality care.

We provide support and advice to staff, about people with a Learning Disability.

We can offer advice and support during meetings.

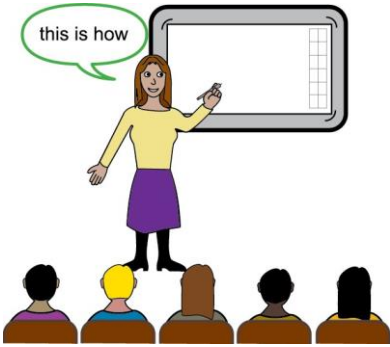

We can give advice to staff regarding people's behaviour.

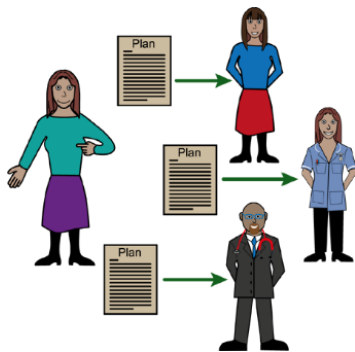

We can provide support to the person and their family/carers as needed.

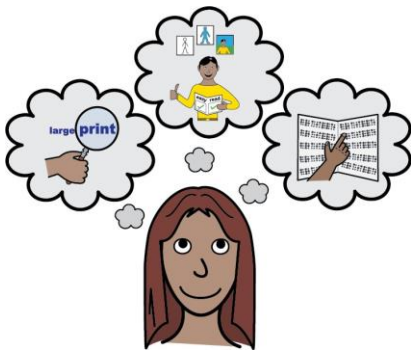

We can lead and advise on projects that will improve care for people with a Learning Disability.

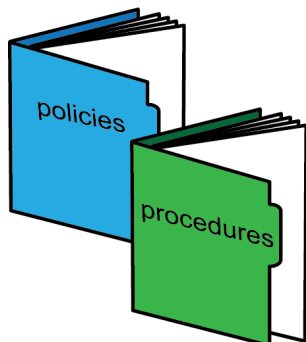

We can provide training on the needs of people with a Learning Disability.

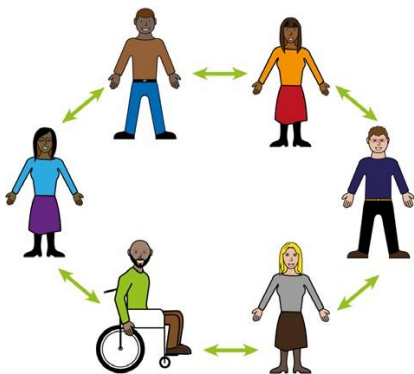

We can give support about reasonable adjustments.

We can give support with accessible information for those with a Learning Disability.

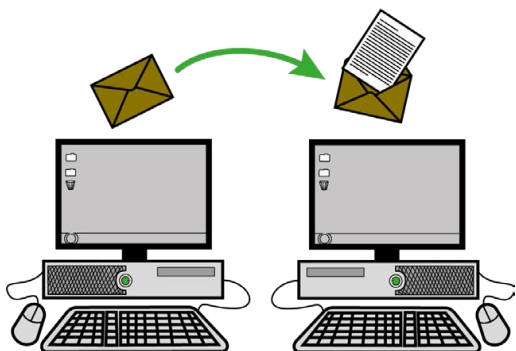

We can advise on policies and processes.

We can work across organisations.

We can help signpost to other professionals / organisations.

If you need any help with anything, please contact us on:

Lisa Smith, Named Nurse for Learning Disability

Lisa.smith31@nhs.net

Beth Wilson, Learning Disability Project Manager

Bethany.wilson2@nhs.net