

Know the possible signs of cervical cancer

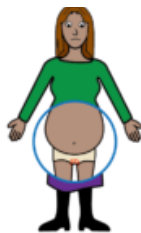

This leaflet is about the symptoms of cervical cancer

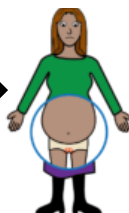

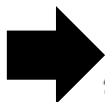

Symptoms are your body showing you something might be wrong

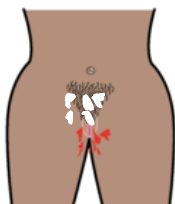

These symptoms may be harmless, but it is always best to get checked out by your GP.

Bleeding from your vagina when not on your period

Pain or bleeding from your vagina during or after having sex

Any unusual or smelly fluids coming from your vagina

Unexplained pain in lower back or pelvis that lasts a long time

